

There is little enough quite time to spend with my family. The major changes you propose to the Wisconsin no call list will limit my valued time while the organizations still have my mailing address where they may solicate me and I can deal with them at my pleasure. Do not inhibit my ability to pursue happiness and our rights as a state.